Iiiiiii Numb. 3960.

The Daily Courant.

Saturday, July 3. 1714.

London, July 3.

Yesterday arrived the Mail due from Holland.

From the Amst. Gazette, dated July 10.

LETTERS from Milan of the 28th of June advise, that they had an Account Barcelona is very hard pressed: The Bombs had blown up two Magazines of Powder in the Place, with many neighbouring Houses: A Bomb having fallen into a Church, whither several Women had retired, killed 50 of them; which had obliged the Barceloners to send all the Women to Montjouy: However, their Courage was not sunk, and one of the Principal among them who motioned capitulating, was thrown out of the Windows of his House.

According to the Advices from Baden of the 29th of June, the Plenipotentiaries of the Emperour and the most Christian King had a Conference the Day before, which was interrupted by the Arrival of a Cabinet-Courier from Marly: 'Tis said new Difficulties are raised about the Affair of Bavaria, and that the Plenipotentiaries of the Emperour and the King of France have dispatched Expresses thereupon to Vienna and to Paris.

From the Amst. Gazette, dated July 10.

Vienna, June 27. Prince Eugene having received an Express from Baden, prepares to be going thither within 15 Days. An Express is likewise arrived from Hanover, another from the Upper-Rhine, a third from Turkey, and a fourth from Silesia dispatched by the Prince Royal of Poland James Sobieski. We have an Account, that King Stanislaus has passed near this City, followed by some Post-Caleshes, to go through the Empire to the Dutchy of Deux-Ponts. 'Tis not known yet whether the King of Sweden is with King Stanislaus.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated July 10.

Ausbourg, July 2. Two Days ago passed through this City several Post-Chaises with Stanislaus Leszinski, and some say with the King of Sweden, going to the Dutchy of Deux-Ponts, under a strong Guard commanded by General Count Gronsfelt.

From the Amst. Gazette, dated July 10.

Wilna, June 10. General Repnin arrived the 24th of last Month near Riga, with 24000 Men of Russian Troops. General Bauer is likewise on the March from Petersbourg, with 40000 Foot more, for Livonia.

Posnania, June 22. The Diet of Upper Poland is separated without coming to any Resolution: The first Day was employed in reading Letters, but the next a great Debate arose, upon M. Tabezenski's interrupting M. Skozinski; whereupon the Nobility drew their Sabres, and killed the former, with two Gentlemen who drew for him.

From the Hague Courant, dated July 11.

Wyburg, June 17. This Morning early the Czar put to Sea with his whole Fleet, in order to joyn his Ships from Revel; after which we expect to hear of a naval Engagement.

Hague, July 10. Part of the Baggage of the Earl of Clarendon, who is appointed Minister from the Queen of Great-Britain to the Court of the Elector of Brunswick, is arrived here from England, and his Excellency himself is daily expected.

The following Placard has been published here.

THE States-General of the united Provinces of the Netherlands. Whereas notwithstanding our repeated Representations to the Regency of Sweden, on Occasion of a great Number of Shipping with Abundance of Goods taken from our Subjects and confiscated, the Inhabitants of that Kingdom continue to do the like, under Pretext that they have Orders and Commissions for it; and whereas, even within a few Weeks, they have intercepted a great Number of Ships, without any just Reason; which Actions cannot be looked upon otherwise than as open Piracies. For these Causes, and after mature Deliberation, We have ordained and commanded by these Presents, that our Subjects Owners of all the said Ships and Effects, shall be allowed to retake them, as belonging to themselves, at all Times and in all Places Harbours and Rivers where they shall find them, even tho' they have been confiscated by the Sentence of any Judge, or Sold. &c. Hague, July 2. 1714.
